8. President's Report

“Firstly, I'd like to acknowledge today's meeting is being held on lands that were never ceded. On behalf of all of us, I recognize the heritage beliefs and the relationship indigenous Australians share with the lands. I also acknowledge and pay respect to elders both past, present and extend this acknowledgement if there are any Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander peoples here with us today.

Hello everyone and thank you for coming to this SRC meeting, which mark my final general meeting with Western SRC. As an executive member. I've succeeded three remarkable years in this organization as a council representative and then executive representative, and I thankful for support me in this journey.

My plan during the elections was to fight for printing credit in all Western Sydney University libraries. Then extend student breakfast from three days to five, to protect us around areas of the environment, as well as improvements on campus including parking. In addition to that, to ensure that the SRC is accessible to all our students.

I would like to thank Bayan Sohailee, Romonda Eid, Mohammad Afroze Abid, Kasey Seymour and Jasmine Ricciareilli. Thank you for supporting me and encouraging me to for President. It's a pleasure and privilege to have worked alongside colleagues, how to bring the best out in each other. Thank you to the Western student community for belief in me and your support as well as your friendship and trusting me to represent you actively learning in the general elections. I'm so grateful for that.

I must also thank student community leaders who supported me in this journey. Lena Karakis, Kritika Sharma, Travis Wilson, Parwin Taqawi, Rebecca Nguyen, Anuksha Goswami, William Li, Ayuni Sanjala, Christian Conol and Bansari Soni for their passion and dedication for our student cohorts.

To my successor, Daniel Bonatti, I can guarantee I will always be there to support you in good and celebrate with you victories. As I get ready to enjoy more time with my patients with placements, I hope you all can continue to achieve greater things.

I'm so fortunate to have completed my student political career surrounded by such talent and professionals. I'm sure that the SRC can only have even better as it has been every day for past three years. As the last message for all future representatives, I just want to say, always remember to the courage to advocate for our students and know right from wrong. I strongly believe in you and am already proud of all the great things you will accomplish."

Motion 12.19: Place Further Sanctions on the Iranian Government and Officials

Issue	Between 2021-2022, Iran faced some of the largest waves of protests seen since 2009. The protests were sparked after the murder of 22-year-old Mahsa Amini, a Kurdish girl from Iran’s Kurdistan region, by the so-called morality police. The protests started as public resistance and anger but soon turned into a demand for freedom. This call for freedom included factors such as women’s rights, the rights of ethnic/religious minorities, the rights of the LGBTQIA+ community, and many more. Many of those who risked their lives to protest were young university people, same age as many of us, and many of them were arrested and some were executed. Today we task Western Sydney University to use its influence to call on the government to act against this injustice.

Motion 12.26: Games Table for The Hub

Issue	The Hub (Building EG) on the Parramatta South campus is often used for board games, table games, socialising and some events. It would be ideal to see this space utilised further and to its maximum potential. A request was recently received from students to somehow implement a pool table on campus. Whilst a standard-sized pool table would involve great cost and take up a lot of space, this motion seeks to find an alternative, to allow The Hub to continue being a fun and social space, whilst being budget-friendly.

Motion 12.29: Law Students (and Friends) Movie Night

Issue	This proposed event, in collaboration with the Western Sydney Law Students' Association will involve food and a law-specific movie but is open and welcoming to students from all schools/disciplines. The aim is to provide students with a free, and more casual social event to add to the calendar, given that most of the law school events throughout the year are ticketed and involve a direct cost to students. This will also be a good way for students to connect and network with each other, and unwind from the busy semester.
